Now that the books are finally closed on the Spring Hill GMT172 conveyor project, I wanted to drop you a line and personally congratulate the whole Genesys team on a job well done. The project management was well organized, the engineering was on point, and the field team was excellent. I especially appreciated the prompt reaction to the few issues we encountered – it really showed your customer focus. Overall, it was a very smooth and successful project. I look forward to crossing paths again in the future
